

Just Cause Tennis Inc. (JCTI) History

2004 – 2009

- JCTI conducted summer and after-school tennis programs at McClymonds

2007

- JCTI sponsored “Tennis Party at McClymonds” an event that promoted tennis and increased physical activity for inner-city children and their families

2008

- Began teaching tennis to senior citizens at Ira Jenkins in East Oakland
- JCTI’s McClymonds Boy’s tennis team achieved an impressive 2nd and 3rd in the OAL tennis finals: first time in 20 years to have an OAL boys’ tennis team
- JCTI hired two youth teachers who had previously participated in the tennis program

2009

- Tennis Clinic fundraiser held April 4, 2009. The event promoted tennis in Oakland, and created successful partnerships with organizations, and schools. The event help raise funds to sustain JCTI’s after-school tennis programs at McClymonds High School in West Oakland, and Ira Jenkins Recreation Center in East Oakland

2009

- JCTI sponsored a youth outing to Stanford University for the Bank of the West Classic professional tennis event
- JCTI provided financial support for two youth to help with educational travel expenses

2010

- Spring tennis classes will begin at Ira Jenkins Tennis Courts in East Oakland